IN RE: RETREAT

The Board discussed the radio project as well as the current status of thoroughbred racing at Colonial Downs, and possible reasons for slow business growth in New Kent County.

Other subjects that were discussed included whether the Fire Marshal should be allowed to carry a gun, the Historic School, Liberty Landing and the need for apartments in New Kent, as well as artifacts donated by Cumberland Hospital, hunting in residential areas, press releases, and student transportation.

The Board also talked about setting goals for the new Community Development Director, as well as scheduling annual performance reviews for other employees.

There was discussion regarding the Social Services Director position.

Mr. Evelyn explained that he had been contacted by a deceased landowner's family regarding the possible waiver of penalties and interest on delinquent real estate taxes, and he had referred the request to the Treasurer.

There was discussion regarding the scheduling of a Town Hall Meeting and the Chairman directed that this item be included on the October work session for further discussion.
